

House Resolution No. 3641

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives welcome with pleasure the opportunity to recognize a remarkable Missouri citizen whose efforts and accomplishments have made her a source of inspiration to all those around her; and

Whereas, Amy Wilson has been chosen as a recipient of the 2005 Direct Support Professional Award, a most impressive accolade to be bestowed upon her by the St. Charles County Coalition of Service Providers and the Developmental Disabilities Resource Board of St. Charles County on June 16, 2005, at St. Charles Community College; and

Whereas, each year, the St. Charles County Coalition of Service Providers has the pleasure to honor individuals who show a marked commitment while directly supporting consumers with disabilities; and

Whereas, Amy Wilson is a teacher's assistant in a self-contained classroom at United Services, where she has worked for the past six years; and

Whereas, Amy Wilson is known, admired, and respected for her helpful attitude, warm smile, and friendly manner in which she has always greeted people in and around the community; and

Whereas, Amy Wilson's responsibilities include preparing lunches, implementing behavior plans, adding information to develop behavior plans, collecting data, cleaning work spaces, and tending to the basic needs of the children at United Services; and

Whereas, Amy Wilson skillfully and consistently observes each child's existing skill level and their emotional development and then gently helps them grow to meet their full potential; and

Whereas, Amy Wilson can take pride in knowing she has consistently given more than one hundred percent to all those activities in which she has so generously and enthusiastically participated:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Amy Wilson for her selection to receive the 2005 Direct Support Professional Award and in further wishing her continued success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Amy Wilson.
